LTV Studios in East Hampton has announced the return of Hamptons Summer Songbook By The Sea for summer 2026, featuring a lineup of celebrated Broadway, cabaret and concert artists.

Produced by Donna Rubin and LTV Creative Director Josh Gladstone, the annual series transforms LTV's television studio into an intimate performance venue complete with café-style seating, modular staging, state-of-the-art lighting and sound, and a Baby Grand piano. The concert series has become a summer destination for audiences seeking world-class musical performances in an up-close setting.

The 2026 season will kick off on June 28 with a season-opening performance by Norm Lewis. The opening-night event will include a reception following the concert.

The season continues on July 11 with Here's to Life starring Ann Hampton Callaway, followed by Dreaming of a Song: The Music of Hoagy Carmichael on July 18 featuring Klea Blackhurst and Billy Stritch. On July 25, audiences can experience Beyond Blue Moon: Before the Broken Hart with Eric Yves Garcia, Maria Abous and David Alpern.

August performances begin with A Swell-Egant, Elegant Party on August 1, starring Eric Comstock and Barbara Fasano. The evening will be hosted and produced by Laurence Maslon. On August 22, cabaret favorites KT Sullivan, Mark Nadler, Christine Pedi and Stephanie Pope will headline Hey, Old Friend! A Cabaret Jubilee.

The series concludes August 29 with Tony Award winner Donna McKechnie presenting A Musical Memoir, an evening of songs and stories drawn from her celebrated career.

"This captivating concert series brings together a standout lineup of celebrated cabaret and Broadway performers," said the producers in announcing the season. Each performance is designed to combine live music, storytelling and intimate audience engagement in a unique venue setting.
