

Two Jews Making Food
Episode 12

GRAPE MINT SPRITZER WITH GRAPE ICE CUBES

Ingredients:

- 2 cups red and green grapes, halved
- 3 limes (2 juiced, 1 for garnish)
- ¼ cup fresh mint leaves plus more for garnish
- 64 oz. Container of Kedem Grape Juice
- 1 pint sparkling wine OR sparkling water for non-alcoholic version (boo!)
- Granulated sugar for rim

Instructions:

- Make ice cubes ahead. Place a few sliced grapes in the molds, pour grape juice into molds and freeze.
- In large pitcher, combine lime juice and mint, and crush the mint with a muddle.
- Add remaining grapes, enough grape juice to fill the pitcher halfway, and top it off with the sparkling wine (or sparkling water).
- To Serve, mix a little of the grape juice with granulated sugar and put on a plate.
- Rim glassware of choice with lime, then twist the rims of the glasses in the sugar mixture.
- Place ice cubes in the glasses then pour the drink into the glasses.
- Garnish with a lime on the rim and floating mint.

CHAG SAMEACH!